

Co-ordinator – Lifesaving & Member Training

Surf Life Saving Tasmania

Job description

Are you looking for a new career opportunity that will make a real difference in the community? Are you interested in working with an organisation whose focus is to save lives, create great Australians and build stronger communities? Surf Life Saving is the largest volunteer movement of its kind in Australia.

We are seeking a passionate and motivated Co-ordinator for Lifesaving & Member Training join our team.

About Us

Surf Life Saving Tasmania ("SLST") is a volunteer based not-for-profit community service association and is the peak organisation for water safety in Tasmania. Our purpose is to enable all Tasmanians and visitors to enjoy our aquatic environments safely.

About the Role

In this role as Co-Ordinator for Lifesaving & Member Training, you will assist in the planning, administration, and delivery of activities and training to ensure our volunteers have the skills needed to perform their roles as capable and rescue ready lifesavers, and that our lifesaving service meets the needs of our community.

Each position is permanent full-time, with four weeks' annual leave, employee assistance program, training and generous salary packaging under our NFP status, providing an attractive and competitive market salary. SLST supports flexible work arrangements and will consider applicants seeking a part-time position and/or based in northern/southern Tasmania.

About You

To be successful in this position, you will:

- Have excellent interpersonal and communication skills with the ability to build and maintain collaborative and productive relationships.
- Be proactive, demonstrating initiative with problem-solving skills and have a high level of attention to detail.
- Have demonstrated experience in delivering training and/or programs.
- Demonstrated commitment to and understanding of Surf Life Saving Tasmania's Mission, Vision, and Values.

We are looking for someone who is:

- Highly organised and systematic but flexible and adaptable to meet competing priorities and challenging situations.
- A 'do-er' that is focused on meeting deliverables, can self-motivate and work independently, whilst also contribute to a team.
- Enthusiastic to take on new tasks as they arise and assist wherever required.

How to Apply

For further information about the role and to obtain a position description, please send an email using the subject line: Co-ordinator Lifesaving & Member Training to Alison Stubbs, General Manager on astubbs@slst.asn.au.
